

CALL FOR PAPERS

The Society for Modern Greek Studies calls on graduate students (research or taught) from universities in the UK and abroad to participate in its annual Graduate Research Colloquium. The Colloquium is a student-led event that aims at bringing together students currently undertaking research in the field of Arts and Humanities related to the Modern Greek world (1453 – present), providing them with the opportunity to present their research, discuss their ideas with their peers but also with distinguished scholars, and gain important feedback on their work.

The Colloquium will take place at the Faculty of Medieval & Modern Languages, University of Oxford on Friday 01 May 2020.

Venue TBC.

ABOUT THE SMGS

The Society exists to promote teaching and research in Modern Greek Studies throughout the United Kingdom. It organises regular events, disseminates information, and collaborates with other related institutions and organisations. Its online journal Modern Greek Studies Online began publication in 2015. The Society also acts as the UK national body representing our subject and is affiliated to the European Society of Modern Greek Studies.

ABSTRACTS

Proposals, including an abstract of 200 words maximum as well as a brief biographical note, should be e-mailed to Claudio Russello at claudio.russello@merton.ox.ac.uk no later than Sunday 01 March 2020. Please indicate your full name, degree title, and university in the body of the e-mail.

Papers should be in English and should not exceed 20 minutes. Participants will be notified of the selection of their abstract by no later than 15 March 2020.

Successful applicants must be members of the Society for Modern Greek Studies. If not, they may join the Society after they are notified of successful submission at www.moderngreek.org.uk/society/join.

The Society welcomes submissions from graduate students registered at universities outside the UK but can only refund travel expenses (up to £50) if they are payable to a UK bank account. Priority will be given to students registered at UK universities.
